A At — at that point, we had just contacted him. He just — he made — by the time it took me to — to, you know, make the phone call and discuss what we were going to do, he had — he had kind of walked from the house to the pole barn, you know, and to his car. He was just kind of — you know, the guy ended up being an electrician. He was there probably getting tools out of his car, so on and so forth. Q Were you able to see exactly what he was doing when he was at his car? A I — I couldn't, no. Q Was his car the car that you had mentioned earlier? A Yes. Q Okay. From your observations of him before Trooper Trucks arrives, did you have any indication that he's aware of your presence? A No. Q He did not appear to be aware of your presence?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	been using to get into the building or did you determine whether he had been in the dwelling itself? A He admitted that he had been. He had accessed through the back door into the basement. Q Did he have access into the living portion? A I I don't know. Q After he told you that, what did you do? A I contacted Detective Sergeant Straus and advised her of my findings. Q And then what happened? A She requested that officers enter the home to secure the residence prior to the search warrant. Q Did Mr. Tozer indicate to you that he had spoken to anybody inside the house? A He no. I asked several times if he thought anybody was inside. He says, "I'm not sure." He says, "I just went into the basement." Q Where is the marked patrol car parked at this point? A In the driveway. Q So what did you do after Sergeant Straus made her request? A I stayed outside with Mr. Tozer while Detective Kutches
